

CASS MAGDA'S JKD-KALI

SUMMER CAMP AUGUST 9-10-11-12, 2018

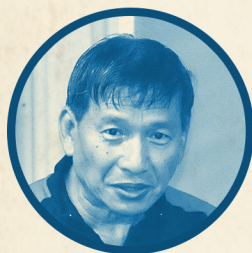

Come train in some of the most fascinating martial arts in the world.

People have come from all over the world to train at this camp. This is going to be an incredibly satisfying camp loaded with new knowledge and new philosophies. It will change everything you know about martial arts. Cass Magda is a world recognized authority of the Filipino martial arts and Bruce Lee's art of JKD. He travels all around the world teaching seminars and this event is right here in Los Angeles at Magda Institute Headquarters with all the equipment we need.

Guro Cass will be teaching some of the intermediate and advanced counter attack techniques and training methods from some of the most famous styles in the Philippines and the explosive trapping hands of JKD. From knife to staff fighting. From sweeping and throwing to submissions. From the Southern Philippines to the North, you are not going to want to miss this.

SPECIAL GUEST INSTRUCTOR

Master Joe Tan from the Philippines will be sharing the eskrima style of Tapado (42 inch long stick style) and the Vinas style of knife disarming. Master Joe has been practicing Tapado and various eskrima styles for over 40 years. Cass Magda describes Tapado as "brutally effective" and one of the most "unforgiving" arts he has ever seen and trained.

No spectators. Photos and video or audio recording is prohibited.

Due to space limitations participants will be capped at 24 people each day. Register early to guarantee your place. First come first serve basis. If you are from out of town, restaurants and hotel (Howard Johnsons in Reseda) are within walking distance of the Institute.
